

Is Your Restaurant Financial System Helping You Remain Adaptable?

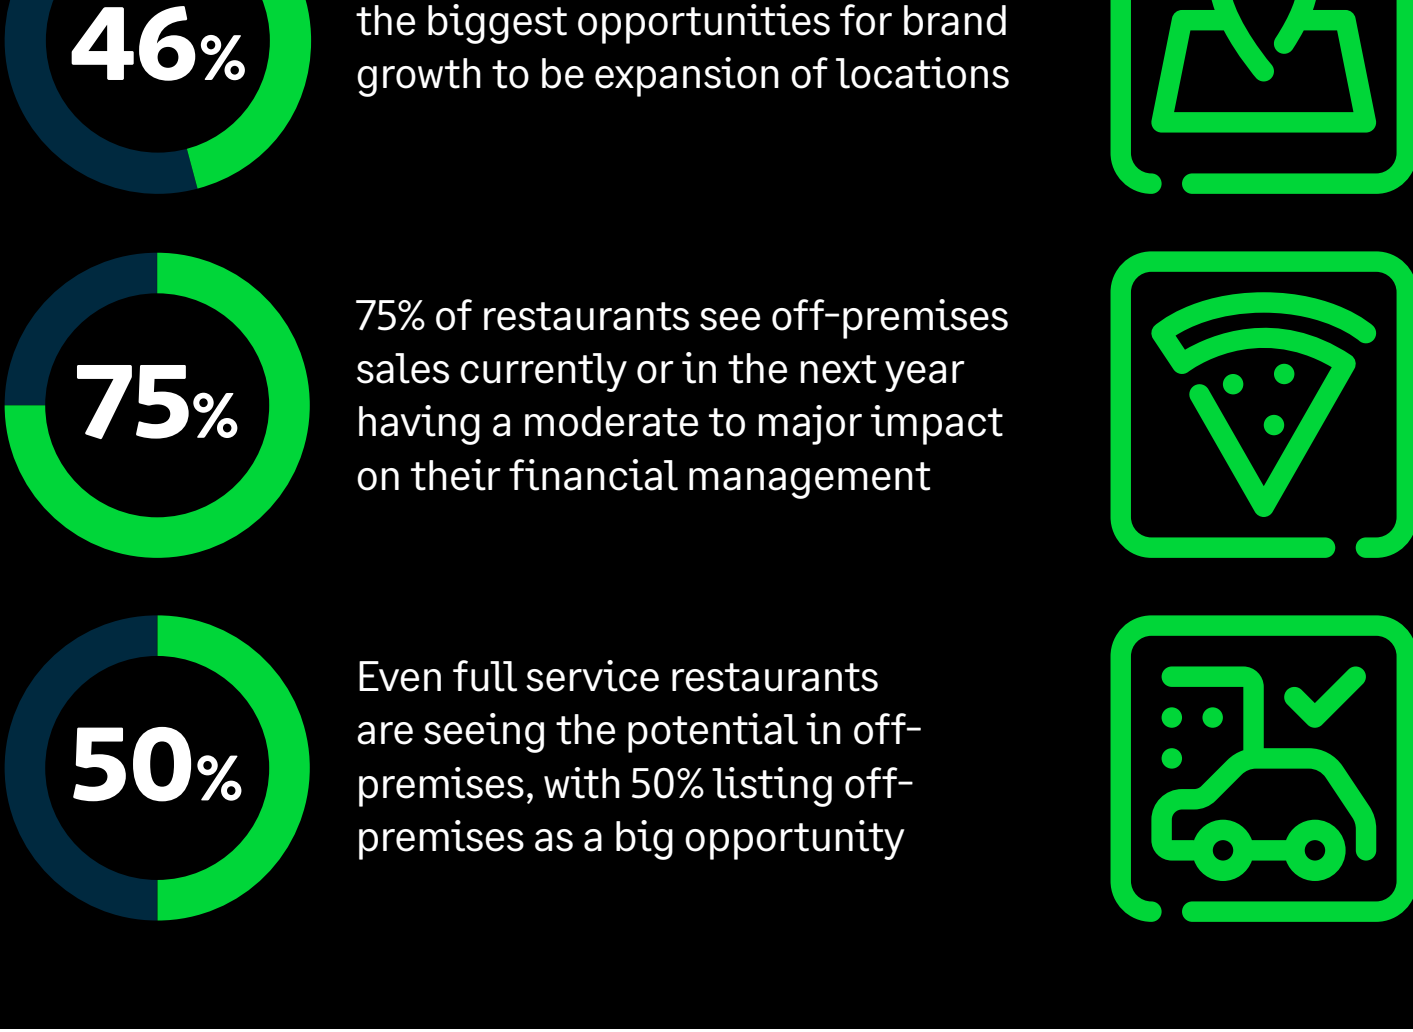

The National Restaurant Association partnered with Sage Intacct to conduct a survey in January 2020 to uncover restaurant finance professionals' top industry challenges and the essential capabilities to remain competitive in an ever-changing market.

Top-of-mind challenges for restaurants

- 1 Hiring and retaining labor to meet dynamic needs
- 2 Resource intensive and time-consuming manual processes
- 3 Expanding the finance role into strategy and operational business

88% find that the responsibilities of restaurant CFOs and other finance professionals have increased

And the market is changing...

Restaurants need to equip themselves with essential capabilities in their financial software.

Your accounting and financial software should enable you to steer your business in ever-changing market conditions.

Yet, over 85% of organizations on restaurant-specific accounting software find the software falls short in meeting long-term needs.

Top 5 desired features in accounting and financial software

- 1 Process and data automation
- 2 Better integration between other systems to share data
- 3 Real-time reporting
- 4 Quicker, easier reporting
- 5 Better multi-entity support

Sage Intacct's modern cloud financial management platform...
